Bad Showing for English Farms.

Land in corn-growing parts of England is falling off in value. A small estate in one of the eastern counties, which four years ago was valued at $125,000, was put up at auction six weeks ago, and the highest price offered for it was $45,000. It comprises 490 acres, and was bought in by the Trustees. It is said that in the same part of England much arable land is running to waste for want of capital to pay for the labor which it requires. No farming except grazing and dairy farming is said now to pay for the outlays.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

Now that Senator Joe Williams and George T. Marye have stepped into the gubernatorial fight, it makes the situation from a Democratic standpoint quite interesting. Captain Matt Canavan has many warm friends who are anxious to see him nominated. We predict that Senator Williams will decline to enter the contest when he thinks the proposition over more. Mr. Marye is said to be in earnest and anxious to enter the race, but as yet no one seems to know what his plans are, and beyond the fact that he has written to several of his friends notifying them of his candidacy, nothing is known. Lieutenant-Governor Adams is unquestionably the strongest man so far, and seems to be developing strength daily. So much has been said regarding the candidacy of Hon. Jerry Schooling that a GAZETTE reporter sought an interview with that gentleman this morning and was informed that he was not, neither would he be, a candidate for any position whatever, State or county. He said his private affairs occupied all his time, and that he could not afford to sacrifice a good business for politics. Mr. Schooling is positively in earnest, and when one or two more guns like Oregon go off there will be more of them who will want to climb down, for the Democratic horse seems to be out of wind now.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The money in the Branch Mint at San Francisco is being counted preparatory to a change of Superintendents. E. F. Burton is to assume that office on July 1st, and Hon. E. C. Waite, of Nevada county, is to be his private secretary. There are some $23,000,000 there to be counted, while there are some $12,000,000 in the Sub-Treasury in that city.

Oregon has fired the first political gun, and comes to the front with a clean score. The entire Republican State ticket was elected. George has been re-elected Congressman by a large majority. The political capital the Democracy claimed to have made on the anti-Chinese question cut no figure whatever.

The first passports granted under the new law to Chinese leaving this country for their native land with the intention to return here, were issued in San Francisco yesterday. Seven hundred and sixty-six passports were issued. These Chinese sailed on the steamer Oceanic to-day.

H. G. Parker, it is said, would like to represent Ormsby county in the State Senate. He will be a candidate before the Ormsby county Republican Convention.

Last week beef cattle on foot reached a higher price in Chicago than was ever before known in the history of the city.

Davitt Still Denouncing.

LONDON, June 7.
Davitt, in a speech at Liverpool last night, said he was in favor of the land becoming national property. He considered that the soil of Ireland could be purchased for tenants for £140,000,000 in Government bonds, repayable in 50 years. He denounced Dublin Castle rule as a monstrous failure.

At Fort Wayne, Indiana, A. D. Brandrig & Co., hardware dealers, have been closed by the Sheriff. Assets estimated at $100,000; liabilities, chiefly in the East, nearly as much.

In the House to-day, Sparks apologized to Cox for remarks made yesterday while the debate on the deficiency bill was going on, and Cox accepted the apology in kind feeling.

The Union line steamship Alaska, from New York, made the passage in six days, eighteen hours and twenty-five minutes—two hours faster than her own previous and hitherto best time.

Chief Justice Waite, Justice Gray, General Sherman and one or two others, will take a trip to Yellowstone Park, Yosemite Valley and the other great places of the Pacific coast this summer.

A bill was reported in the House of Representatives yesterday, and placed on the calendar, suspending the issue of silver certificates and limiting the coinage of silver to the requirements of the people.

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN.

The Bond Counterfeiter.

CHICAGO, June 7.

A Times' Washington special says: On the 20th of this month the time accorded to Doyle, the counterfeiter, in Chicago under suspension of sentence, will expire. Secretary Folger to-day consented to give a Times correspondent an outline of the case, so far as he understood it and the result of his personal investigations so far as he has gone into the examination. Mr. Folger says, in the first place, Sam Felker, of Chicago, came to him with what purported to be a plate from which the spurious issue of bonds found upon Doyle was printed. Felker submitted this plate to Folger without making any charge against any of the officials connected with the Treasury. He said to the Secretary: "Here is a plate which I claim is made up in large part from dies in possession of the Government. I want you to examine the plate carefully, and if you are satisfied it is what I represent it to be, I shall ask for the release of Doyle. Folger at first thought very seriously of placing Felker under arrest for having in his possession so important a counterfeit plate. Then it occurred to him that this would destroy all possibilities of getting at the men who, so to speak, stood back of that plate. So he made a proposition to Felker. The proposition, however, was not made until the Secretary had fully investigated the plate submitted. He sent for the best experts in New York, but their evidence has been of an unsatisfactory character. Some of the experts thought the work was transfer work from Government dies, while others were equally positive it was not. The Secretary, however, was free to say that the weight of the experts' testimony was in favor of the theory that the work was taken from genuine plates. This being the case, he said to Felker that he would set a price upon Doyle's release. The proposition, in brief, was, if Felker would furnish evidence that would connect anyone inside of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing with counterfeiting, and furnish evidence that would convict Doyle, he would be allowed to go free. The proposition was reduced to writing. One of Doyle's bondsmen, president of a bank in Illinois, came on to Washington for the purpose of having an interview with the Secretary. Folger showed him the agreement, and gave him to understand that if Doyle or any of his friends could produce the testimony indicated that would be the end of the case, so far as evidence was concerned. This proposition was submitted a few days after suspension of sentence in Doyle's case, and up to the present time, Folger says, not one line of evidence has been submitted to him of any kind impeaching the good faith or honesty of a single employee of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. Several attempts, however, have been made to produce evidence of this character. Two weeks ago last Saturday Brockway, alias Spencer, was brought to him for the purpose of having an interview. Brockway made a complete confession and gave the Secretary full and absolute information of the combination in the Bureau, and how transfers from Government plates were made, and the names of the guilty parties. Undoubtedly Brockway gave Doyle's friends to understand that he could furnish important testimony upon the subject, as he was brought here with that view. Folger says Brockway came into his presence Saturday afternoon and the interview took place in his large office on the third floor of the Treasury.

The President and a Second Term.

WASHINGTON, June 6.

A Republican member of Congress from one of the Middle States, whose relations with President Arthur are intimate and friendly, says he asked him recently as to his purpose at this time with reference to a nomination for a second term, to which the President replied, smilingly: "If I get safely through with the load of responsibilities and embarrassments of the three years remaining of my term, I think I shall be weary enough of the burden to be content to see it transferred to another's shoulders rather than bear it myself." An old Republican politician to-day said he was of the opinion that Arthur, if he entertained the purpose of seeking a nomination for a second term, had abandoned it altogether; that he would henceforth administer the Presidential office wholly without reference to a second term, keeping in view always two things—a patriotic and faithful discharge of its high duties and responsibilities and that his political friends are rewarded as far as possible for their fidelity to him personally and to the Republican party.

In the Shadow of the Gallows.

WASHINGTON, June 6.

Guiteau received with composure the announcement of the failure of the last effort of his counsel to secure a rehearing of his case. He proceeded to denounce the court in baneful words and cracks, and said God had revealed to him that he was to be taken care of. God, he said, works through human agencies, and President Arthur is to be the agent to save him, if necessary. Reed has not yet given up the case. He contemplates further action, but declines to announce its nature beforehand.

This morning Reed, counsel for Guiteau, appeared before Judge Wylie in the Criminal Court, and asked to have the record corrected as to the counts in the indictment, alleging that the late President died in the District of Columbia. He stated he has other motions in view which necessitated a clean record. The Judge denied the motion. He did not question the power of the Court to correct its records, but it was not for him, sitting in another term and having no personal knowledge of the record, to undertake to amend it. The general verdict was based upon good counts in the indictment, the Court in passing sentence shutting its eyes to vicious counts.

Fleischhanger Murderers.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 7.

J. W. Bayless, a farmer between 50 and 60 years of age, living about three and a half miles from Vienna, Ill., on the Wabash railroad, was murdered. It seems he had been sitting by a small lamp reading. The assassins entered, tied him to the chair, in which he was sitting, and then tied his hands behind him and his feet together. When found his feet were burned to a crisp by the lamp being held under them. They split his head with an axe and searched the house. When through, they cut the bridge with which he was bound to the chair and shoved him over on the floor, where he was found by the neighbors, dead. No clue to the assassins.

An Elopement Sick of His Bargain.

ST. LOUIS, June 7.

John Curtis, who eloped with Mrs. Jennie Dixon two months ago, has returned here to his parents. Mrs. Dixon is at present in San Antonio, Texas, but Curtis' family endeavored to arrange matters so she can return to her mother's house. Mr. Dixon and children are in Iowa. A divorce suit is pending in court here against his wife. Young Curtis had tired of Mrs. Dixon and was induced by his brothers to return home.

A Union of Iron and Coal Interests.

ST. LOUIS, June 7.

A syndicate has been formed here for consolidating the coal and iron interests of this section and southern Illinois. It has secured a contract of a number of railways running through the section mentioned. They have already invested a million and a half in this direction and in mines, and will erect large steel and car-wheel works at the new town of Harrison, Ill. It is thought the Laclede Ironworks will be moved there. It is also contemplated to build a railroad to Iron Mountain, Mo.

Dueling Editors.

NEW ORLEANS, June 7.

A duel was fought this morning at a slaughter house, between Major E. A. Burke of the Times-Democrat and C. N. Parker, editor of the Picayune. Pistols were used and five shots exchanged. At the fifth fire Burke was shot through the thigh. The wound is not considered dangerous.

Import Duty on Immigrants.

WASHINGTON, June 7.

The House Committee on Commerce will report favorably a bill providing for a duty on immigrants of 50 cents per head, to be paid the collector of the port within 24 hours after the entry of the vessel. The bill also provides for the return of all foreign convicts except such as have been convicted of political offenses.

Along the Northern Pacific.

GLENDALE, Montana, June 7.

Henry Villard and party arrived this morning, surveying the Northern Pacific railroad, which is in fine condition and fast nearing completion. Crops along the line are in splendid condition. Towns and villages have grown wonderfully the past year.

Fatal Explosion.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 7.

A terrible explosion in Tunnel No. 1 on the G. P. & I. Railway extension occurred yesterday, some 25 kegs of blasting powder being touched off by workmen on the east end of the extension. The workmen at the west end were at once overwhelmed with earth, rock, etc. Three men were killed and five wounded.

Stubborn Brickmakers.

CHICAGO, June 7.

The south and west-side striking brickmakers have unexpectedly refused to accept the compromise and return to work. The north-side yards are, however, in full operation, and it is hoped the others will resume to-day.

Fire and Death.

CINCINNATI, O., June 7.

Twenty frame dwellings, occupied by families, on Brown and Ravine streets, up Mill Creek Valley, were burned this forenoon. One child was burned to death. Twenty-five families are homeless. Loss, $25,000.

Lowell Not Recalled.

WASHINGTON, June 7.

The renewed rumors of Mr. Lowell's return are without foundation. There is excellent authority for saying that Lowell has not been recalled and has not resigned, and that no name is being considered for his place.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS

Suicide of a Promising Young Man.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.

Charles J. Gommer, receiving teller of the Bank of California, committed suicide this morning at his residence, 834 Sutter street, by shooting himself through the head. He came down to breakfast at the usual hour and returned to his room, and about 10 o'clock was found dead on the floor with a pistol lying near his hand. No report was heard by the inmates of the house. A report on the street is to the effect that he has been under surveillance by the bank authorities on suspicion of crookedness in his accounts, but the officers of the bank say that the affair is a complete surprise to them; that he had always enjoyed the full confidence of his employers and that his accounts are perfectly straight. They account for his act on the ground that some time ago he came into possession of a considerable amount of money, which he had lost in stocks, and that his losses had unsettled his mind. The officers of the bank had noticed nothing peculiar in his behavior, but his associates in the office say that he had appeared for some weeks past to be laboring under depression of spirits, for which he refused to assign any cause. The deceased was well connected, being a brother-in-law of Adam Grant, of Murphy, Grant & Co., and of General Morrow, the well known stock operator. He was 37 years old.

Oregon Election.

PORTLAND, June 7.

Figures on the Legislature at noon are: The Senate consists of 30, the House of 60 members. The Republicans have, including hold-overs, 15 Senators; Democrats 15; doubtful 10, with a probability in favor of the Republicans. In the House the Republicans have 30, Democrats 24, doubtful 6, of which two are probably Republican. Granting to the Democrats every doubtful county, the legislature will be a tie on joint ballot. The Republicans, however, claim the legislature by at least 4 on joint ballot. The Democrats are inclined to concede that it will be a tie.

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest authority on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Exhausted Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their troubles. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and excites a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from indigestion and weakness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefits from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach is weak, and refuses to assimilate nourishment the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It brooks the appetite and offsets the effects of the system.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weakness of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and restores the system to its normal condition.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative, and especially those who are afflicted with the various forms of nervous debility, will find it a specific for their troubles. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion, purify the blood, and to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily assimilated on the stomach, and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fine engraved likeness of Baron von Liebig, and a facsimile of his signature, as well as that of A. VOGLER & CO., Barmen, Prussia, Sole Agents for America.

BELL TONGUE SYRUP,
AN ACCIDENTAL DISCOVERY OF great value.

An Inestimable Benefit to Mankind.

UNCLE BEN JO'S

GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN PA ACEA.

UNCLE BEN JO was born in Boston, in 1800. Being a botanist, he effected many wonderful cures with roots and herbs. In 1844 he went to South America to study botany, and while there accidentally made his great discovery. The natives of this country were quite familiar with it, and had always supposed it to be a poisonous herb, which they used for the sole purpose of keeping snakes away from their tents or houses. They did by laying it in a circle about the same at a proper distance off. This herb, Uncle J., as well as the natives, considered a very obnoxious and poisonous one, and when green and fresh it threw off a very distasteful and repulsive odor. The herb grows about two feet high, and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part lops over and hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its curved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, burly-looking ball, which stalk and ball, in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell. Hence Uncle J. named it the Bell Tongue Plant. In South America this herb is only found in the extreme latitude of the country, and the natives there call it "Zarr Nero." It is a wonderful cure of kidney and liver diseases, also, dyspepsia, and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part lops over and hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its curved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, burly-looking ball, which stalk and ball, in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell.
